PARISHIONERS WANT TO KEEP MINISTERS

Kensington Church Members Petition Bishop Not to Transfer Them.

ROCKVILLE, Md., Feb. 13.-That the members of St. Paul's Methodist Church Kensington, this county, are well pleased with their pastor, the Rev. W. G. Mc-Kenny, and the presiding elder of their district. Dr. J. W. R. Sumwalt, was evidenced at a meeting in St. Paul's Church, when a resolution was adopted requesting Bishop Anderson, who will preside at the annual conference soon to be held in Washington, to continue both ministers in 'their present positions for another year, at least.

The Rev. S. R. White, a retired Baptist minister, officiated at the marriage here Saturday of Miss Ada Virginia Blank, of Baltimore, and John Sydney Travers, of Relay, Md., the ceremony taking place at the minister's home. They left for Washington immediately

W. E. R. Covell, Captain of Winning High School Cadets, Appointed.

William E. R. Covell, captain of the winning company in the annual competitive drill of the high school cadets last spring, today was notified that he had passed his examination to the West Point Military Academy.

Covell will enter West Point on June 14. The young man made a record both as a student "d as a drill master in the high school adets. He carried off the pennant last season in one of the most closely contested drills seen in Washington for some years.

His appointment was made by the Commissioners, and was announced shortly after graduation. He took the examination immediately after leaving Central High School and without additional coaching.

Await House Action On Klingle Ford Park

The District Commissioners are much interested in the question whether the amendment to the District bill authorizing an appropriation of $300,000 for the purchase of land in Klingle Ford valley is to be adopted as a part of the District bill. It is expected the House will sance tion it. It already has passed the Sen-

Goes to West Point | WEST POINT HONOR | DISTRICTAFTER LAW FOR CAPITAL BOY TO HEAD OFF CROOKS

Unable to Punish Men Who Bring Stolen Property Here to Dispose Of.

Following a decision of the Court of Appeals which, according to the Corporation Counsel's office, leaves the District without laws to punish criminals for bringing stolen goods into the Dis-for bringing stolen goods into the District, the Commissioners have under consideration a bill introduced by Representative Carlin of Virginia providing a fine and imprisonment in the penitentiary for such offense.

The passage of the measure is recommended by Major Sylvester, superintendent of police. The attention of the Commissioners is directed to the case of a baggagemaster of the Southern Railway who was convicted in the lower court and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary on the charge of riffing baggage while on his run from Charlotte, N. C., to this city. The case was reversed by the Court of Appeals on the ground that the United States failed to show that the actual opening of the trunks occurred within the limits of the District.

Thousands of dozens of Soiled and water-spotted at unheard-of sacrifice There is, however, one point that we wish to emphasize and impress upon you: There are no damaged goods in this wonderful purchase—the garments are solled, and some of them water spotted. The fire was in the building adjacent to the undermuslin factory, which was damaged only on the roof by fire. Water and quick, rough handling of stock caused the undermuslin manufacturer's entire loss.
